

HOW MANY FLAWS IN A FAKE?

Ask: Do any of these flaws apply to the item in question? If it's not one thing, it's another.

- 1. Crooked embroidery & stitching
- 2. Embroidered letters are connected
- 3. Untrimmed paper backing on underside of embroidery
- 4. Broken zippers
- 5. Loose threads and stitching
- 6. Zippers don't move smoothly
- 7. Designer purse label is sticker or clip
- 8. Seams pull apart
- 9. Got it from a guy
- 10. Bought online
- 11. Bought from a wholesaler
- 12. Too many for sale
- 13. Misspellings on packaging or tags
- 14. Grammatical errors on packaging or tags
- 15. Distorted logo
- 16. Price is too cheap
- 17. Item breaks or tears easily
- 18. Clear cello bag packaging with no labels
- 19. Pattern is uneven
- 20. Sizing is wrong
- 21. Newly released product
- 22. Blurry images on packaging
- 23. Wrong color
- 24. UPC scans to wrong product
- 25. Missing UPC code
- 26. Scans to nothing
- 27. "Leather" purse is not leather

- 28. Flimsy hardware
- 29. No brand info sewn, molded, or printed on item
- 30. Box/packaging design is confusingly similar to original item
- 31. Pattern/design is confusingly similar to original item
- 32. Packaging has no brand information
- 33. Commonly counterfeited item
- 34. Commonly counterfeited brand
- 35. Trending item
- 36. Hard to find item
- 37. Rare item
- 38. Unreleased item (e.g. movie)
- 39. Handwritten music labels
- 40. News indicates seizures/arrests/lawsuits
- 41. Authentic version of product doesn't exist
- 42. Non-existent collaboration (e.g.
- 43. Side by side comparison with authentic product shows disparity
- 44. Missing tags
- 45. Uses altered parts of licensed or designer logo
- 46. Will not confidentially show receipts to manager
- 47. Vendor becomes defensive when questioned
- 48. Will not discuss authenticity characteristics of item with staff
- 49. Does not show knowledge about product's authenticity
- 50. Admits to it being fake